

We wait we no man <sup>ever</sup> comes to sleep in the stone while you are here. Nellie has a soft matress and being of course, I love you <sup>more</sup>,

Dear Billie:-

Your kind letter was a great comfort to me. When old age comes, God gives us full strength to bear up under our ~~old~~ infirmities, and we have greater cause to thank and bless Him.

The greatest blessing He ever gives to me is to make my burdens less.
The only duty I have is only to love Him and all those who are related my by blood or marriage also to love my neighbor as myself.

Nettie and Peter are as kind to me as I could ask. When I came here they added two rooms to the side of their stone house. One is mine and the other is theirs. Each room has one bed. The Butcher room is not adjoining either of these two rooms. We also eat in the Butcher.

Oh I am so anxious you should make us the promised visit and bring — Dorothy with you. I will give you my bed and sleep on a pallet in the stone room.

Dear Sister

I looked over the letters I have kept since I was in Giv. Clab.
I found the contract also a will that Daddy gave me that I had forgotten all about, also letters from him stating that Pitt had not complied with his contract.

I hate to bring these things to light but it is hard, being helpless on Peters hands to see what I know I have a right to, go back to the government

Please come as soon as you can I want a private talk with you, and we havent any time to lose. I know you are busy, and would come to see you, but Peter works in the afternoon this week. I am sorry I couldnt get this paper for you when you were here, but it would have taken a long time to search through all these letters and I was too weak for the ordeal.
I am about as usual this morning

As ever

Nettie

Dear Sister Lillian
In your last letter you wrote that you wanted to write me again about our mother's last day but I hadn't heard from you so far let me hear Don't think the matter be settled without an attorney & lawyer and I wish you would act as administratrix,
Yours truly, Howard
